

SMALL BUSINESS ADVOCACY PROGRAM

To learn more about Wilkes University's Small Business Development Center (SBDC), and its free business counseling services and how it can help your business succeed, call Rep. Kaufer's office at 570-283-1001 to schedule an appointment.

The Wilkes University Small Business Development Center (SBDC) is one of 18 SBDCs located on college campuses throughout Pennsylvania. Thanks to funding provided by the Small Business Administration, the Pennsylvania Department of Community and Economic Development and host institutions, the SBDCs can offer free and confidential business consulting. The Wilkes SBDC can help existing businesses to grow their business, explore new markets, plan strategically, increase efficiency and operate with confidence.
