

SMALL BUSINESS ADVOCACY PROGRAM

To learn more about Wilkes University's Small Business Development Center (SBDC), and its free business counseling services and how it can help your business succeed, call Rep. Kaufer's office at 570-283-1001 to schedule an appointment.

We are partnering with counselors from the Wilkes University Small Business Development Center (SBDC) to help existing business owners to grow their business, explore new markets, plan strategically and operate with confidence. The Wilkes University SBDC is one of the 18 SBDCs located on college campuses throughout the state of PA. Thanks to funding provided by the Small Business Administration, the PA Department of Community and Economic Development and host institutions, the SBDCs can offer free and confidential business consulting. Call my office to set-up an appointment.
